

COME SING WITH KINGS

Immerse yourself in the grand heritage of the University of Aberdeen, Scotland, established 1495.

If you have a passion for choral music our Masters Degree (MMus) in Vocal Music is for you.

- Learn from key figures from the choral world, including world-leading composers from Westminster Abbey to Eton College
- Conduct and compose for world-class choirs

And with HRH Camilla, The Duchess of Cornwall as our Chancellor and Balmoral Castle on our doorstep, one thing is certain - you'll be sure of receiving a musical masters fit for a King.

The Masters is 12 months full-time and a part-time version 24 month programme has been created to allow those in work to participate.

Interested?

Contact your Programme Director, Professor Paul Mealor directly p.mealor@abdn.ac.uk

Did you know...

Your Programme Director, Paul Mealor has created music for William and Kate's Royal Wedding and has also been voted the UK's favourite living composer. Think what you could learn from him.

www.abdn.ac.uk/study/courses/postgraduate/taught/vocal